SINGLE TRANSACTION OR RECURRING TRANSACTION

Single Transaction – My signature above authorizes only this specific advertising purchase. I understand that a new form, signature and authorization will be required each month for each future advertising purchase. (For the convenience of automatic billing. Read and Sign under “Recurring Transaction” below.)

Recurring Transaction – My signature (above and below) allows EG Graphics to charge my credit card each month for my advertising purchases, until one of the following occurs:
1.) The end of my advertising agreement. 2.) The amount of the transaction changes.
3.) I cancel my advertising before the 10th of any month, assuming I have fulfilled my initial advertising agreement and now have an * “Indefinitely” advertising agreement.

Signature of Card Holder: _____ Date: _____

*An “Indefinitely” agreement allows ads to “run each month, until cancelled.” It is for advertiser who have been (or intend to be) with us more than one year and reserves ad space each month without the necessity of periodic agreement renewals. Most of our advertisers have this agreement. Ad content can be changed by the 10th of each month, but the ad space is automatically reserved for you.
